Home School Agreement

We strongly believe that a successful education for your child depends on a close working partnership between home and school. This can be done most effectively when all staff, parents and children understand their responsibilities and work together, creating the best possible outcomes for all children. The agreement below represents the shared commitment of the school, parents/carers and pupils to achieve that success. All schools are required to invite parents of pupils to sign a Home School Agreement. The intention of our Home School Agreement is to reflect our aims, mission statement, ethos, and Christian values.

As a school we will endeavour to:	As a parent I will endeavour to:	As a pupil I will try to:
